

UGrow Position – Hanley Democracy Center

The George P. Hanley Democracy Center promotes the understanding of democratic self-governance. It hosts public events, provides educational resources to students, and offers research grants to faculty. Since its inception, the Center has offered a workshop for students on civil deliberation.

Position Description

The Hanley Democracy Center welcomes a team member who will help organize the Center's events, oversee student employees and interns, and assist with grant applications. The Center welcomes a diverse set of applicants. Skills and qualities we welcome include:

- Dedication to the mission of the Center
- Ability to manage social media accounts
- Knowledge of other campus organizations
- Grant-writing experience
- Event planning experience